Allonhill Hosting and Attending Job Fairs Next Week

Firm looking to fill 56 immediate full-time job openings

DENVER (January 19, 2012) - Allonhill, an independent third-party review firm specializing in mortgage due diligence and credit risk management, today announced it will attend the Choice Career Fair on Wednesday, January 25 at the DoubleTree Hotel on Quebec Street in Denver. The firm will also host its own career fair the following day, Thursday, January 26 at the Marriott Denver Tech Center.

Allonhill has 56 immediate openings for Appraisers and DE and Frontline Underwriters. All positions are full-time and located in the Denver area. Allonhill is seeking experienced Appraisers and Underwriters, preferably those with their DE. Recruiters and hiring managers will be on site for both job fairs to conduct interviews. All candidates should bring a copy of their resumes.

“We are seeking candidates who are experts in their fields,” said Allonhill CEO and founder Sue Allon. “And we are committed to building this team in Denver to support our company’s growth and diversity.”

All qualified candidates, including those who are unable to attend either job fair, are encouraged to visit www.allonhill.com/careers to view all openings. Additionally, they may contact jobs@allonhill.com for more information.
